

Metaphysics Quiz #1

Why Metaphysics is seen as a threat.

1. For what reason do people today find metaphysical thinking threatening?
 - a. It is very difficult—thus it offends a sense of egalitarianism, wherein all knowledge should be equally accessible to everyone.
 - b. It leads to serious disagreements and wars among men, because people come to different conclusions and are convinced they are right and others are wrong.
 - c. It can't be verified by empirical science as we know it, and it claims to stand in judgment of empirical science.
 - d. It gives an objective understanding of what it means to be human, including a spiritual soul, and a real and meaningful difference between the sexes.
 - e. It points to an objective code of good and evil in the moral life.
 - f. It shows the human person to be both uniquely noble in the material world, while also radically dependent on a first cause that stands outside the observable universe.
 - g. All of the above.
